India means Unity: Pranab Mukherjee

For him, India means unity. It’s a country with over 130 crore people speaking 122 languages and 1631 dialects, and his mother-tongue Bengali is a sweet part of this diversified wholesomeness called India. This is what Former President of India Pranab Mukherjee said at the inaugural ceremony of the 90th edition of Nikhil Bharat Banga Sahitya Sammelan at Sister Nivedita University campus on 23rd December, 2018. He said, “When I think of India, a photo of one hundred and thirty crore people appears in my mind. Beyond diversified language, belief and customs, they all blend into one unified bond, and each of them is an Indian.” The three-day conference was held at Sister Nivedita University campus in New Town from 23rd to 25th December, 2018. Amongst the dignitaries on dais were MP Pradip Bhattacharya, MP and eminent artist Joyen Chowdhury, State Minister and ace dramatist Bratya Basu, veteran author Samareesh Majumdar, eminent painter Suvaprasanna, former Air Chief Marshal Arup Raha, HIDCO Chairman Debashis Sen, General Secretary of Publishers & Booksellers Guild Tridib Chatterjee, veteran author Jogen Chowdhury, State Minister and ace dramatist Bratya Basu, veteran author Samareesh Majumdar, eminent painter Suvaprasanna, former Air Chief Marshal Arup Raha, HIDCO Chairman Debashis Sen, General Secretary of Publishers & Booksellers Guild Tridib Chatterjee, eminent Bangladeshi poet Hasan Arif, Dr. Ramdulal Bose, Dr. Kirti Ranjan Dey, Chancellor of SNU Satyam Roychowdhury and President of Nikhil Bharat Banga Sahitya Sammelan Jayanta Ghosh look on.

For him, India means unity. It’s a country with over 130 crore people speaking 122 languages and 1631 dialects, and his mother-tongue Bengali is a sweet part of this diversified wholesomeness called India. This is what Former President of India Pranab Mukherjee said at the inaugural ceremony of the 90th edition of Nikhil Bharat Banga Sahitya Sammelan at Sister Nivedita University campus on 23rd December, 2018. He said, “When I think of India, a photo of one hundred and thirty crore people appears in my mind. Beyond diversified language, belief and customs, they all blend into one unified bond, and each of them is an Indian.” The three-day conference was held at Sister Nivedita University campus in New Town from 23rd to 25th December, 2018. Amongst the dignitaries on dais were MP Pradip Bhattacharya, MP and eminent artist Joyen Chowdhury, State Minister and ace dramatist Bratya Basu, veteran author Samareesh Majumdar, eminent painter Suvaprasanna, former Air Chief Marshal Arup Raha, HIDCO Chairman Debashis Sen, General Secretary of Publishers & Booksellers Guild Tridib Chatterjee, eminent Bangladeshi poet Hasan Arif, Dr. Ramdulal Bose, Dr. Kirti Ranjan Dey, Chancellor of SNU Satyam Roychowdhury and President of Nikhil Bharat Banga Sahitya Sammelan Jayanta Ghosh look on.